2026 Ohio Integrated Primary Care Conference

Friday, May 29, 2026

This conference will celebrate pediatric integrated primary care (IPC) across Ohio. This conference will foster connection, innovation and collaborative problem-solving to advance integrated care for children and families. Discover how integrated primary care is transforming patients, clinicians, and communities across the state. Connect with others, learn best practices, and explore bold new approaches to care.

Intended Audience

The conference is designed for a diverse network of professionals and stakeholders invested in advancing pediatric integrated primary care across Ohio.

- Behavioral health consultants
- Primary care providers
- Practice managers
- Representatives from state organizations
- Payers, policy makers and hospital leaders
- Faculty, trainees and students from training programs who are shaping the future of integrated care

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, participants should be able to:

1. Apply interprofessional team-based clinical interventions in integrated primary care settings.
2. Implement effective operational processes to support integrated care.
3. Implement evidence-based sustainment practices to develop and maintain behavioral health integration within primary care.
